MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

APPENDIX D

Appendix D is designed for such supplemental information as each holder of the Manual of Trust Examination Policies may from time to time wish to attach.

FDIC Trust Examination Manual Appendix D

	EXAM DATE
TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	EXAMINER

INSTRUCTIONS: Use of this Examination Checklist is optional. If completed, it should be submitted with the examination report.

GENERAL: This form is designed to highlight the examination's coverage of the trust department's activities, and is designed to follow the Uniform Interagency Trust Rating System. This Trust Examination Checklist is complemented by use of the Trust Examiner's Workpaper Checklist, which provides more detailed guidance for each question on this Checklist.

Check (X) the N/A column for questions which are not applicable to the specific department.

Check (X) the N/D column for questions which are not determined during the examination.

	SUPERVISION AND ORGANIZATION	YES	NO	N/A	N/D e organization of the department in accordance with the Statement of ciples of Trust Department Management (SPTDM)?
1.	Is the operation of the Trust Department separate and apart from every other department of the bank? (SPTDM)
2.	Does the trust committee consist of at least three directors, one of whom is not an officer of the bank? (SPTDM)
3.	Has a qualified and competent officer been appointed to be responsible for trust activities? (SPTDM)
	the organization and staffing of the department meet its present and pective needs?
1.	Is the organizational structure designed to promote an orderly flow of the trust department's daily work? (Trust Manual)
2.	Are trust department committees structured so as to constitute flexible, workable entities? (Trust Manual)
3.	Are functions clearly defined and effectively executed? (Trust Manual)
4.	Does the plan of organization include procedures for personnel recruitment, training, evaluation, and salary administration? (Trust Manual)
5.	Is the staff sufficient to handle the volume of work? (Trust Manual)
6.	Are lines of authority, duties, and responsibilities clearly defined and effectively communicated to all personnel? (Trust Manual)
7.	Does the organizational plan facilitate implementation of an adequate program of internal controls and a system of checks and balances? (Trust Manual)
8.	Do controls include a procedure for management review of actions taken by all personnel? (Trust Manual)

Trust Examination Checklist 1 5-28-95

9. Does the organizational plan include procedures for effective communication among all levels of management? (Trust Manual)

	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
10.	Is the authority to make discretionary judgments expressly defined and communicated to supervisory personnel? (Trust Manual)
11.	Are all appointments and changes in key personnel noted in the minutes?
	the board of directors or a committee thereof adequately supervise the rtment?
1.	Does the committee meet at least once each month or as frequently as the trust activity requires (SPTDM)
2.	Does this or other duly appointed committee formally accept each new account? (Trust Manual)
3.	Does this or other duly appointed committee formally approve the closing of trust accounts? (Trust Manual)
4.	Does this or other duly appointed committee make decisions regarding discretionary distributions, extraordinary expenditures and like matters? (Trust Manual)
5.	Does this or other duly appointed committee approve all purchases and sales of assets and retention of investments? (Trust Manual)
6.	Are fiduciary accounts reviewed by this or other duly appointed committee at least once in every 12-month period and more often as circumstances may require? (Trust Manual)
7.	Does the committee(s) keep full minutes of its actions? (SPTDM)
8.	Does the committee make periodic reports to the board of directors of its actions? (SPTDM)
9.	Are the regulatory examinations reviewed by the board of directors? (SPTDM)
10.	Are audit reports reviewed by the board of directors of its actions?
11.	Is a periodic position of the departmental volume of assets and accounts (liabilities) presented to the board or committee?
ls co	mpetent legal counsel provided?
1.	Are written legal opinions obtained? (Trust Manual)
2.	Is the filing of any litigation related to trust operations noted in committee document and referred to counsel?
Is lia	bility insurance coverage sufficient?
1.	Is insurance coverage reviewed by the board or trust committee?
2.	Is the extent of fiduciary activities considered in determining the amount of blanket bond coverage?
3.	Does the bank carry directors and officers' liability insurance for fiduciary activities?
4.	Does the bank carry trust department errors and omissions insurance?
5.	If the coverage listed in questions 3 and 4 is carried, is it adequate and does it cover claims involving ERISA?

Trust Examination Checklist 2 5-28-95

	TRUCT EVAMINATION CHECKLIST	Voc	No	NI/A	N/D
	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
			1		I 1
	f the department carries blanket policies covering real estate and mortgages owned by the trust department, is the coverage adequate? (Trust Manual)
C	OPERATIONS, CONTROLS AND AUDITS
Are the	e accounting records of the department adequate?
	Do accounting records include a general ledger or other suitable control records?
2. I	s the general ledger posted daily and a statement of condition prepared?
	Are separate department ledger controls maintained for principal cash and ncome cash?
4. /	Are account records posted daily?
	Are entries (source documents) to fiduciary accounts approved by an officer who is not responsible for posting the entry?
6. F	Are asset descriptions accurate and complete?
7. A	Are all assets recorded on ledgers when received in kind or paid for?
	Are posting totals reconciled by a person other than the employee posting the record?
	he department have appropriate support records such as ticklers, synoptic is, etc.? (Trust Manual)
1. F	las a tickler system been established?
2. [Does the tickler system cover all activities which could benefit from it?
3. I	s the tickler adequately maintained?
	s it the practice of the department to establish synopsis sheets or dockets for accounts?
5. F	Are such digests periodically reviewed by appropriate staff members?
Do the contro	department's personnel practices provide for adequate internal routines and s it the policy of the department to have all employees absent for at least two consecutive weeks?
	s there proper division of duties so that no one person has complete control over any functions?
3. V	Where practical, are duties rotated between employees?
4. E	Does the department disburse by prenumbered departmental check only?
	s a beneficiary signature file maintained so that endorsement on paid trust checks may be verified?
6. I	Are cancelled trust checks filed numerically?
7. I	s the reserve supply of unissued trust checks kept under dual custody?
8. If	f a facsimile signature plate is used, is it retained under adequate control?

	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
9.	Are register copies of outstanding checks maintained by an employee who does not have duties connected with preparing or approving the entries to accounting records?
10.	Are spoiled checks maintained as a permanent record and filed?
	e safekeeping of trust assets, including vault procedures, dual control and dic verification adequate?
1.	Are assets held under joint custody and segregated from the assets of the bank?
2.	Is there a vault ticket system in effect where the flow of securities can be traced?
3.	Does the department require the presence of two authorized representatives on the receipt of assets in kind?
4.	Upon receipt of assets, is prompt confirmation given to the parties of interest?
5.	Are worthless assets identified and maintained under proper control? (Trust Manual)
6.	When assets are received in which market value or cost value cannot be do the practice of the department to enter the assets on the records at a nominal value?
7.	Is personal property entered on the records at the time received or comes under the control of the department?
8.	Is a continuing record maintained showing the location of securities and other assets not hold in the vault?
9.	Is there a periodic verification of assets by someone not involved in the maintenance of the records or the assets?
10.	If verification is done on a sampling basis, is a sample of adequate size used?
Is the	e department subject to an adequate audit on a periodic basis?
1.	Did the audit include a review of the trust committee minutes? (Trust Manual)
2.	Did the audit include asset confirmations? (Trust Manual)
3.	Did the audit include spot-checking and tracing of transactions for accuracy and validity? (Trust Manual)
4.	Did the audit include a review of commission and fee calculations? (Trust Manual)
5.	Did the audit include a review for compliance with local statutes relating to fiduciary activities? (Trust Manual)
6.	Did the audit include an administrative review of selected accounts comprised of: (Trust Manual)
	(a) Review of trust agreement and court orders?
	(b) Administrative actions for compliance with governing instruments?

Trust Examination Checklist 4 5-28-95

		. 00	 14//	, _
		-
	(c) Income receipts?
	(d) Income distributions?
	(e) Principal invasions or disbursements including approvals therefor?
	(f) Asset composition and conformity with indenture?
	(g) Consultation with co-fiduciaries?
	(h) Approvals by co-fiduciaries?
7.	Did the audit review the internal routines and controls?
8.	Did the audit include a review of the compliance with the recordkeeping and confirmation requirements for securities transactions? (FDIC Part 344)
9.	Did the audit include a review of compliance with applicable securities regulations? (Trust Manual)
	ASSET ADMINISTRATION
	ne department's investment policies and practices formulated or approved by pard of directors or appropriate committee?
1.	Is there a formalized policy regarding the selection, retention and diversification of trust investments?
2.	Do investment transactions receive approval or ratification by a committee?
3.	Is co-fiduciary approval of investment transactions obtained?
4.	Does the bank maintain an approved list of securities?
5.	Is a prompt review of assets made upon acceptance of each account where the department has investment discretion?
6.	Does the bank have a stated policy regarding the acquisition, retention, or disposition of companies whose stock is closely held and has limited marketability?
7.	Where trust assets include substantial interest in closely held corporations, do the instruments expressly authorize retention or prohibit sale without consent?
8.	Does the department have written policies regarding retail repurchase agreements?
9.	If the answer to question 8 is yes, does the policy conform to the FDIC's Statement of Policy on the subject? (Trust Manual)
10.	Do policies/practices adequately deal with substantial cash balances and overdrafts? (Trust Manual)
Is the	department adhering to its investment policies?
1.	Is there a review of the assets of each trust account at least once during each period of twelve months? (SPTDM)
2.	In connection with investment reviews, does the committee have available and use such data as appraisal reports and investment summaries?

N/A

No

Yes

N/D

	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
3.	Do investment reviews include a determination that all income was properly received?
4.	Are transactions which are exceptions to policies properly documented?
	the bank have adequate documentation (including evidence of review) to ort the purchase and/or retention of investments?
1.	Are files maintained for individual security issues?
2.	Where unusual assets are held, is there evidence to support the conformance of such assets with the governing instrument and purposes of the account?
3.	Have the records required by Part 344 of the Corporation's Rules and Regulations been established?
4.	Are the records referred to in question 3 adequately maintained?
5.	Is there evidence of compliance with SEC's Rule 240.17f-1, Lost and Stolen Securities Program?
6.	If bank is serving as co-fiduciary, is there written evidence of approval for transactions?
7.	Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings of registered equity securities? (Trust Manual) the department provide adequate protection for all real and personal erties under its care?
1.	Does the department maintain adequate property and casualty insurance for all real properties held?
2.	Is it the department's policy to reappraise real property on a periodic basis?
3.	Is the value of items of personal property established by an independent person with appraisal expertise?
4.	Does the department provide a suitable environment for all tangible assets which require special storage?
	ACCOUNT ADMINISTRATION
Are t	rust personnel generally familiar with the accounts administered?
1.	Is the administration of each account assigned to a specific individual?
2.	Is senior management cognizant of the major problems encountered in the administration of specific accounts?
3.	Is there evidence that the board of directors or committee thereof is made aware of all litigation, major complaints, and important administrative matters?
Do tr	ust files document the proper administration of the account?
1.	Has an administrative file been established for each account which contains (Trust Manual):
	(a) A legal file?

		TROST EXAMINATION CHECKEST	163	NO	IN/A	IN/D
				_	_
	(b)	An account digest or synopsis sheet?
	(c)	A correspondence file which would include necessary approval of fiduciary actions?
	(d)	An investment review file?
	(e)	A securities transaction file?
	(f)	A tax file?
2.		routing slip used to ensure appropriate information regarding the account sseminated to all responsible persons?
3.		ere notation as to the frequency of review of the account by the trust mittee?
4.	Are	reviews conducted with notation of the review in the account file?
		yee benefit accounts administered in accordance with the provisions of dother applicable laws, regulations and fiduciary standards?
1.	Are	the following documents on file:
	(a)	Copy of the plan and the trust agreement?
	(b)	Certified copy of the resolution of the board adopting the plan?
	(c)	Determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service?
	(d)	specimen signatures of persons authorized to give instructions concerning the plan?
2.	Are	own-bank deposits authorized by the plan? [408(b)(4)]
3.		e bank discharging its duties solely in the interest of participants and eficiaries? [404(a)(1)]
4.		e plan operated for the exclusive purpose of providing benefits and aying reasonable expenses? [404(a)(1)(A)]
5.		e care, skill, prudence, and diligence utilized in accordance with the law applicable regulations? [404(a)(1)(B) and DOL Regulation 2550.404a-1)
6.	Is th	ere adequate diversification of investments? [404(a)(1)(C)]
7.	Does	s the bank refrain from dealing with parties in interest? [406(a)]
8.	10%	e aggregate value of employer securities and real property not more than of each plan's assets, unless otherwise authorized for defined benefit s? (Section 407)
9.		loans to participants and beneficiaries within legal restrictions?
10.		e investment in common trust funds authorized in the plan or by a ciary authorized to do so? [408(b)(8)] tive investment funds administered in accordance with applicable laws, s, and fiduciary standards?

No N/A

Yes

N/D

	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
			110
If est	ablished pursuant to Revenue Ruling 81-100, are the following requirements fied?
1.	The group trust instrument expressly limits participation to IRA's which are exempt under Section 408(e) of the IRC and employer's pension and profit sharing trusts which are exempt under Section 501(a) of the IRC by qualifying under Section 401(a)?
2.	The group trust is itself adopted as part of each IRA or employer's pension or profit sharing plan?
3.	The group trust instrument prohibits that part of its corpus or income which equitably belongs to any IRA or employer's trust from being used for or diverted to any purposes other than for the exclusive benefit for the individual or the employees, respectively, or their beneficiaries who are entitled to benefits under such participating IRA or employer's trust?
4.	The group trust instrument prohibits assignment by a participating IRA or employer's trust of any part of its equity of interest in the group trust?
5.	The group trust is created or organized in the United States and is maintained at all times as a domestic trust in the United States?
	established under Internal Revenue Code Section 584, are the following equirements of OCC Regulation 9 satisfied?
1.	Has a copy of the plan been filed with the Comptroller of the Currency? (OCC Section 9.18b-1)
2.	Are notices of intention to participate in or withdraw from the funds entered in the fiduciary records in the prescribed manner? (OCC Section 9.18b-4)
3.	Are admissions to and withdrawals from the fund effected only as of a valuation date? (OCC Section 9.18b-4)
4.	Have regulations been followed concerning availability and/or dissemination of financial reports of funds? (OCC Section 9.18b-5iv)
5.	Does the bank comply with regulatory restrictions governing advertising and solicitation regarding common trust funds? (OCC Section 9.18b-5v)
6.	Have the requirements been met regarding audits of common trust funds? (OCC Section 9.18b-5i)
7.	Are regulations complied with regarding periodic valuations of funds? (OCC Section 9.18b-4)
8.	Do interests of each fund by a single account or related accounts conform to limitations prescribed by regulations and governing instruments? (OCC Section 9.18b-9i)
9.	Are investments of funds in securities in one entity within limitations prescribed? (OCC Section 9.18b-9ii)
10.	If an interest in a fund is acquired by the bank, is it eliminated at the next opening of the fund? (OCC Section 9.18b-8i)
11.	Are participants' interests in funds excluded from any assignment of an account as security for a loan by the bank? (OCC Section 9.18b-8i)

Trust Examination Checklist 8 5-28-95

	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
Colle	ective investment funds - general:
1.	Are an original or certified copy of the plan and revisions, if any, on file for each fund?
2.	Are all assets in possession of and under the exclusive control of the trust department?
3.	Is there a policy in effect regarding the type and size of accounts admitted to the funds?
4.	Where required, have co-fiduciaries consented to investment in the funds?
5.	If there is a requirement for periodic court accountings for the collective investment funds, have such requirements been complied with?
6.	If state law establishes rules for the operation of the funds, has the appropriate law been complied with?
7.	If an investment by a fund is nonconforming under investment authority of an account, is the account denied admission to the fund?
8.	Where, because of jurisdiction or situs, an account is subject to the laws of another state, is consideration given to this in determining eligibility of the account for admission to the fund?
9.	Are adequate general ledger controls and subsidiary accounting records maintained for funds?
10.	Is it the bank's policy to prohibit funds from acquiring or holding securities of companies in which any bank director, officer, employee, or inside person is significantly interested?
11.	Is it the bank's policy to prohibit funds acquiring assets from or selling assets to any affiliate of the bank or any director, officer, employee, or inside person?
12.	Are fees and expenses collected by the bank from the funds only those authorized by the plan?
13.	Is there a formalized procedure in effect for voting proxies of stocks held in collective investment funds?
	corporate trust funds administered in accordance with applicable laws, lations, and fiduciary standards?
1.	Is the original indenture or a properly authenticated copy thereof on file for each account?
2.	Do docket sheets or other synoptic records provide a digest for the indenture and other facts essential to the proper administration of accounts?
3.	Do departmental ledgers account properly for authorized issues, outstanding liability on issues, bond inventories, and bond cremations?
4.	Are there control accounts and adequate subsidiary ledgers for investments and uninvested cash?
5.	Where applicable, is there on file evidence of compliance with the terms of the governing indentures for:

Trust Examination Checklist 9 5-28-95

	TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
		_	_	_
	(a) Inspection certificates?
	(b) Insurance coverage?
	(c) Certificates of no default?
6.	Are investments held by corporate trust accounts conforming under the terms of the governing instruments?
7.	Has the trustee complied with the terms of the indenture and/or the Trust Indenture Act where any default has occurred?
8.	If applicable, have the notices required by the Trust Indenture Act been given?
9.	Is there adequate control over dormant funds and checks returned undelivered?
10.	Is there a procedure in effect for ensuring the prompt investment of available funds where the terms of the indenture gives investment discretion to the trustee?
11.	Are unissued bonds and/or stock certificates maintained under dual control in the case of the department acting as transfer agent or trustee?
12.	Are adequate ticklers or other records maintained with respect to matters of periodic performance required of both the obligor corporation, and the bank?
13.	Are periodic financial statements being obtained when this is required by terms of the trust indenture?
14.	Have substitutions of collateral, where made, conformed to the terms of the governing instrument?
15.	Is there a procedure in effect to determine on a continuing basis if any obligors on issues for which the bank acts as trustee are indebted to the commercial department of the bank?
16.	Are coupon payment accounts, interest accounts, and dividend accounts reconciled periodically by employees not assigned to payment or bookkeeping function?
17.	Are stop payment orders handled properly?
18.	Are overages, shortages, losses, recoveries, and suspense items reflected promptly in accounts specifically set up to record and control them?
	personal trusts administered in accordance with applicable laws, regulations, iduciary standards?
1.	Does the department obtain original or authenticated copies of the appointment, including court orders and inventories?
2.	Before accepting appointment as successor fiduciary, are the acts of the predecessor fiduciary fully reviewed?
3.	Does the department utilize a checklist to ensure all data required to establish an account is obtained?
4.	Does the bank utilize docket or synopsis sheets?

Trust Examination Checklist 10 5-28-95

5. Does the bank properly allocate cash to income or principal? 6. Does the bank receive timely, written authorization from co-fiduciaries or others whose approval or direction may be required? 7. Does the bank file timely accountings with appropriate parties? 8. Are estates settled in a reasonable length of time? 9. Does the bank have policies which cover the voting of proxies for stocks held in accounts? 10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities. 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities. 5. Does the bank has so led sicretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate authority? (Trust Manual)
6. Does the bank receive timely, written authorization from co-fiduciaries or others whose approval or direction may be required? 7. Does the bank file timely accountings with appropriate parties? 8. Are estates settled in a reasonable length of time? 9. Does the bank have policies which cover the voting of proxies for stocks held in accounts? 10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate		TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST	Yes	No	N/A	N/D
6. Does the bank receive timely, written authorization from co-fiduciaries or others whose approval or direction may be required? 7. Does the bank file timely accountings with appropriate parties? 8. Are estates settled in a reasonable length of time? 9. Does the bank have policies which cover the voting of proxies for stocks held in accounts? 10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate			-	_ others whose approval or direction may be required? 7. Does the bank file timely accountings with appropriate parties? 8. Are estates settled in a reasonable length of time? 9. Does the bank have policies which cover the voting of proxies for stocks held in accounts? 10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 4. Does the bank comply with safe are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? 4. Poes the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate soligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	5.	Does the bank properly allocate cash to income or principal?
8. Are estates settled in a reasonable length of time? 9. Does the bank have policies which cover the voting of proxies for stocks held in accounts? 10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to to purchase own bank or affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	6.
9. Does the bank have policies which cover the voting of proxies for stocks held in accounts? 10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	7.	Does the bank file timely accountings with appropriate parties?
10. Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities? 11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	8.	Are estates settled in a reasonable length of time?
11. Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument? 12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	9.
12. If bank acts as co-fiduciary with an individual, does it supervise the accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	10.	Is there proper control and accounting for account liabilities?
accounting and management of the account? CONFLICTS OF INTEREST Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	11.	Are invasions of principal within the restrictions of the governing instrument?
Do the bank's policies and practices adequately prevent the abuse of own bank deposit relationships? 1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	12.
1. Are there adequate policies and procedures designed to minimize deposits in own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate		CONFLICTS OF INTEREST own institution? 2. If investments are made in own bank deposits, is an adequate rate of interest received by the account? 3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate
3. If by state law, deposits with self are limited, is the bank in compliance with such statute? 4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	1.
4. Does the bank comply with state escheat laws? Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	2.
Are the department's policies and practices relating to the acquisition, retention, and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	3.
and voting of own bank, parent company, and affiliate obligations adequate? 1. Is the bank's policy not to purchase own bank or affiliate securities for accounts? 2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	4.	Does the bank comply with state escheat laws?
2. Is it the bank's policy to liquidate own bank stock and affiliate securities if they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate they are received in kind? 3. Does the bank comply with state statutes regarding retention of own bank stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	1.
stock or affiliate securities held in trust accounts? 4. Does the bank have a formal policy regarding the voting of own bank stock or affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	2.
affiliate securities? 5. Does the bank's policy referred to in question 4 comply with applicable statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	3.
statutes and regulations? 6. If the bank has sole discretion over retention of own bank and affiliate securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	4.
securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account adequate? 7. Are required reports promptly filed regarding beneficial holdings for bank's own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	5.
own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate	6.	securities, is the return on such securities to the beneficiary's account
	7.	own or parent company's registered equity securities with the appropriate

Trust Examination Checklist 11 5-28-95

8.	Is special attention given to such securities at account reviews and so noted in the committee minutes?
acco offic	n making discretionary purchases, retention, and sales of assets for fiduciary unts, does the bank prohibit improper dealings with itself, its directors, ers and employees, and other individuals and entities as might affect Its best ment?
1.	Do department policies prohibit the sale or transfer of account assets to directors, officers, or employees of the bank or its affiliates?
2.	Do department policies prohibit the purchase of assets from directors, officers, or employees of the bank or its affiliates?
3.	Does the board specifically consider the purchase, retention, or sale of assets which involve bank directors, officers, and their interests?
4.	Where the bank lends or advances funds to an individual account, are these transactions properly handled and documented?
In dealing with brokers, agents, dealers and their related organizations on behalf of fiduciary accounts, does the bank ascertain that there is no interest or connection between the bank and such individuals or organizations as might affect the beat judgment of the bank in effecting such dealings?
1.	Are there policies and/or procedures in effect which would prevent broker deposit abuse?
2.	Where the bank utilizes an affiliated brokerage firm, have adequate policies and/or procedures been put in effect to prevent abuse?
3.	If "soft dollars" are utilized to pay for brokerage services, are they within the safe harbor provisions of Section 28(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934?
Does the department have adequate policies and procedures covering multiaccount and intertrust dealings?
1.	Does the department have a policy for the fair and equitable allocation of securities and prices to accounts when orders for the some security are received at approximately the same time and are placed for execution either individually or in combination? (FDIC Part 344)
2.	Does the department have a policy for the crossing of buy and sell orders on a fair and equitable basis to the parties to the transaction? (FDIC Part 344)
3.	Do department policies ensure that multi-account and inter-trust dealings are fair to each account?
	Are the department's policies and procedures designed to prevent the improper use of "material inside information?"
1.	If the bank receives inside information, does it immediately cease transactions in the company's securities?
2.	If material inside information is received, does the department request management of the company to make such material public?
3.	Does the bank restrict contact between the trust department and other bank personnel who might have access to inside information?

N/A

No

Yes

N/D

TRUST EXAMINATION CHECKLIST			No	N/A	N/D
				-
	EARNINGS
Does the bank budget trust department revenues and expenses?
1.	Does senior management of the bank establish expectations for the trust department to be profitable?
2.	Does senior bank management periodically review the operating performance of the trust department?
Does the board of directors review the profitability of the trust department?
1.	Is a profit and loss statement for the department presented to the directorate?
2.	Are variations from the department's budget presented to the board of directors?
Does the department periodically review sources of income?
1.	Has the bank/department established a fee schedule or other formal policy for pricing department services?
2.	Does management periodically review the fee schedule or policy?
3.	Are discounts from the bank's fees approved and reviewed periodically by the trust committee?
4.	Does the bank have a policy concerning employees serving as independent fiduciaries or co-fiduciaries with the bank for a fee?
Does the department periodically review expenses?
1.	Does the bank allocate overhead expense to the trust department?
2.	Does the bank maintain expense accounts for direct expenses of the department?
3.	Does the bank periodically compare actual expenses to the cost of obtaining services from an outside servicer?

Trust Examination Checklist 13 5-28-95